WASHINGTON, July 25.—President Roosevelt, apparently with reluctance but with determination today definitely entered the tax battle in congress in an effort to save his program from the twin danger of delay and opposition.

The action of Mr. Roosevelt represented a change of sentiment from earlier expressions in which it was indicated that he would leave the job of drafting the new tax bill to congress.

President Intervenes
Confronted by the strong possibility that some of his major proposals might be thrown overboard, the president personally intervened in the dispute among Democrats and means committee Democrats.

Congressional leaders said that they expected the president to take an active role in the tax battle until a final decision is made in the senate.

After informing house ways and means Democrats that the framing of an inheritance, gift, individual income and corporation tax should be hastened, Mr. Roosevelt sent word that he wants the basic principles laid down in his tax message retained.

White house pressure evidently had affected the struggle with the ways and means Democrats. Although a majority of members had

PA NEW OBSERVES

Dear PA New:
The notice you have given the night hawk in this column has brought to me quite a number of requests from persons who want to know about this bird. The night hawk is termed a goat sucker, it was the belief of some people years ago that this bird had the habit of sucking the milk of wild goats, cows and sheep. In Trinidad they are known as the fat bird and in some locations they are called cliff beaked birds, because of the enormous gap of their mouths. The night hawk uses its large mouth to catch the insects that fly in the night. The night hawk will not be classed with the whip-poor-will as the night hawk is active in the early morning and during twilight, while the whip-poor-will is wholly nocturnal in its habits, spending the daylight hours in sleep. A peculiarity of the whip-poor-will is that you will always find this bird settling lengthwise on a limb. I know of ten species of the goat sucker or night hawk.

Deluge Hits Areas Of Western Pennsylvania

(International News Service)
Rivers throughout Western Pennsylvania rose rapidly today, some exceeding their banks, following a cloudburst that flooded lowlands and did considerable damage to crops.

Although flood conditions in many sections were bad, no casualties were reported.

A camp, occupied by 50 girls, along Little Mahoning creek south of Punksutawney was flooded as gushing water spread over the countryside ruining crops, flooding basements and inundating many roads. Many gardens were washed out and highways were damaged as a result of a 2.19 inch rainfall at Kittanning between midnight and 8 a. m., while the Allegheny river rose rapidly, nearing flood stage, small creeks turned into virtual lakes.

The Erie-Meadville districts reported heavy damage from excessive rains yesterday.

HOPE W.P.A. WILL START AUGUST 19

If the project submitted to Harrisburg and Washington are given approval without any unusual delay, actual work should start in the Works Progress Administration by August 19, according to J. Vale Downie, director of district 14 today.

In the meantime he is proceeding with the organization of the county units in each of the four counties in district 14, Lawrence, Beaver, Butler and Mercer.

The Administration is to decentralize the authority and make the district organizations the authority as much as possible according to Mr. Downie.

In this way it is thought that better results will be produced.

Police sought today for clues that may establish the identity of a man who slugged Miss Geraldine Confer, aged 17, of 702 Etna street, with a flashlight about 10 o'clock last night near the intersection of Atlantic avenue and Etna street.

A description of her assailant was secured but he escaped.

According to Miss Confer, she was enroute home on West Washington street. When she reached the bridge which spans the Pennsylvania railroad tracks she noticed a man appeared to be following her.

She continued homeward but when she reached a point near the intersection of Etna street and Atlantic avenue she was struck from behind, the flashlight inflicting a wound on her head.

Her assailant fled over the hill toward the railroad tracks and disappeared. A call sent a cruiser car filled with police to the vicinity but the assailant escaped.

Miss Confer described the man as being about 28 years old, five feet six or seven inches tall, gray shirt, suspenders, light dirty cap and of medium build.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 25.—Good deal of news in the papers last day or so. Republicans feel very confident of taking over the government in a year and a half from now, but some of 'em like Bert Snell and Ham Fish think that's a little long to wait, and they are suggesting letting Roosevelt out now and taking the thing over themselves at once.

They holler about the constitution. Well, it says you are elected for four years, but what's a constitution when your boys need the work now. Ham and Bert are giving Mutt and Jeff a run.

Yours,

Magill

(International News Service)

WORCESTER, Mass., July 25.—Prosecution officials today were chary of comment on what revelations, if any, were made in a four hour grilling of Esther Magill, 17, so-called "unconscious reason" for the alleged slaying by Newell Sherman of his young wife.

"Her entire statement is very material," said Assistant District Attorney Alfred Cenedella. "It would be consistent to make it public. It will be revealed at the trial."

Sherman, alleged to have tipped over the canoe in which he and his wife were enjoying a midnight trip on Lake Singletary, was under close guard to prevent any attempt at suicide or escape.

PREVIOUS PAYMENT
OF $800 WAS MADE

Upon an order issued by County Controller R. C. McCaslin, County Treasurer William O. Pitts today drew a check to Civil Engineer Thomas A. Gilkey for $4,805, balance alleged to be due for drawing plans for the proposed Croton Ave. viaduct. Gilkey had previously been paid $800 on the contract.

When the bill for the balance due was presented by Gilkey, Controller McCaslin refused to pay it, claiming that the contract which Gilkey had made with the county commissioners had not been filed in his office, within the time specified by law. He also questioned other features of the contract.

After waiting for several months, Gilkey issued a mandamus on the controller to pay the bill. A hearing was held in court and an opinion was delivered in which the contract was held to be a valid one and McCaslin was directed to pay the bill, on or before July 25.

The Croton Avenue viaduct was one of the projects which the county took up, following a recommendation of grand juries that it be built. It was to extend from near the intersection of Walnut street with Croton avenue, across the Neshannock to Lincoln Avenue.

Before a grant of money could be obtained from the Public Works administration, it was necessary to have plans and specifications. The county commissioners contracted with Gilkey to draw the plans. After the project was abandoned, however, Gilkey, who had done his part of the work, claimed a commission under the terms of the contract.

Militant Opposition For January Primaries Beginning To Crystallize

LONG IS CALLED TRAITOR TO PARTY

(International News Service) NEW ORLEANS, La., July 25.—Militant opposition to Sen. Huey P. Long in the state primaries in January today was beginning to crystallize in the Bayou State, with five of Louisiana's eight congressmen marching at the parade.

Following a series of anti-Long conferences here with leaders from throughout the state, the five representatives issued a signed statement charging Sen. Long with being a "self-confessed traitor to the party which elected him" and announcing that the "Democrats of this state will have a complete ticket" in the field against him.

Bitterly assailing Sen. Long's vehement attacks against President Roosevelt, the congressmen pledged their whole-hearted support of the national administration.

the state constitution, the voters can only cast their ballot for one candidate when two judges of the supreme court are to be elected for concurrent terms. The section reads: "Whenever two judges of the supreme court are to be chosen for the same term of service, each voter shall vote for only one, and when three are to be chosen, he shall vote for no more than two; candidates highest in the vote shall be declared elected."

As a result of Justice Simpson's death, two new judges must be elected this November, and the Republicans and Democrats, having the highest party enrollments, will each elect one.

May Appoint Barnes.

It was considered a probability that Gov. George H. Earle may name Secretary of Revenue H. Edgar Barnes, Jr., who has been endorsed for the supreme court by the Democratic state committee, to fill the vacancy resulting from Justice Simpson's passing. Barnes would then be required to stand for election again in November to continue in office.

In addition to the vacancy created by Judge Simpson's death, the voters will also select a successor to Chief Justice Robert S. Frazer, who retires this year.

Republicans have not endorsed any single candidate for the supreme court and the choice of a G. O. P. standard bearer may be left to the September primary.

Democrats and Republicans could each present two candidates for nomination in September but since no voter can vote for more than one, it was assumed each party will sponsor only one man in order not to split their vote.

trict will have their own unit of operation. Two engineers will be in charge in the capacity of manager and assistant manager. The manager will care for the outside work and the assistant manager will handle the office detail. Both of them must be capable of writing projects. The engineering units of each county will be attached to the county head.

As to who would be the manager and assistant manager of the Lawrence County unit Mr. Downie could not say at this time. A number of former RWD employees have already been transferred to the WPA payroll. Among these are engineers Stewart, McGill, Druschel and Butler. In the clerical force Miss Felicia Hamilton, Miss Caroline Hanon and Vincent Audina have been transferred.

In the meantime the liquidation of the RWD is going forward with the few employees left. Acting Director W. Leslie Wilson is in charge of the liquidation process and all orders from Harrisburg laid off all employees and will close the work up as shortly as possible.

Project Approvals

The approval of projects now has three definite steps to go through before work can start. The project must first get the endorsement of Director J. Vale Downie. It then goes to Harrisburg and if approved by Harrisburg is sent on to Washington for final approval. With the final approval by Washington the work is ready to start.

Four projects for Lawrence county are already in Washington and others are in Harrisburg. Mr. Downie and Mr. Beltz, his assistant, hope to get men to work on them as early as possible. August 19 has been set as the tentative date.

Nowadays it is seldom that one sees a monkey, but one attracted unusual attention today on the North Hill. It sat astride its owner's shoulders. Its tail was wrapped around the man's neck. The monkey paid scant attention to the glance of passers-by.

Pesky little bugs are reported as much in evidence in various parts of the county at the present time.

"Queen Anne's lace," or whatever that prolific weed is named, is being attacked in many localities about the city these days with good results. Keep up the good work! Cut the weeds!

Campers in the New Castle district knew right well that it rained last night, Pa New was informed this morning. FIX UP FIXTURES

If there are nickel plated pipes or toilet fixtures around the house which have lost their plating, clean off the oxidizing which is the cause of the loss of the plating. Then sandpaper the metal, wash with benzine, and paint. Still better, have them replated with chromium.

Clean Out Kidney Poisons

Wash Out Your 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes

If kidneys don't pass 3 pints a day and get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters may become clogged with poisonous waste and the danger of acid poisoning is greatly increased. Bladder passages are difficult, which often smart and burn like scalding water and cause discomfort.

This acid condition, brought about by poor kidney functions is a danger signal and may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE ARMS EMBARGO

Geneva. When and if a peaceful settlement of the Italo-Abyssinian dispute is reached, it is possible Britain will be free to reconsider her position if deemed advisable.

A continuance of the embargo is part of British policy to avoid any action likely to prejudice the present attempts to bring Italy into a round table discussion.

Italy Faces Censure

London, July 25.—Italy faces international censure for a breach of the League of Nations covenant if she refuses to state her case at Geneva when the league council meets to consider the Abyssinian crisis, it was stated in well-informed quarters here today.

Still hopeful of having the issue fully aired at Geneva despite Premier Mussolini's firm stand against league "meddling," British spokesmen pointed out that not even Japan declined to discuss the entire issue when she was haled before the council in the Manchurian dispute.

Captain Anthony Eden, minister for league affairs, is leaving for Geneva shortly confident that the majority of the council will stand against league "meddling." British officials believe that Mussolini will not defy the world by launching hostilities before stating in the league forum the exact reasons for his military preparation.

The British maintain the time is long past when the issue can be confined within the narrow limits of the conciliation commission—whose task was to determine, if possible, whether Italians or Ethiopians fired the first shot precipitating the Wal Wal incident.

Meanwhile, Ethiopia is having its day at court. Dr. Azazi Wargneh Martin, new Ethiopian minister, visited the foreign office this morning and then presented his credentials to King George, remaining for a garden party at Buckingham Palace.

BANKING BILL DENOUNCED BY SENATOR GLASS

federal reserve banks should be stripped of every particle of local self government and that we should establish here in Washington practically a central bank to be operated by people who are not bankers and who have no technical knowledge of the banking business.

"That suggestion was so repugnant to the original purpose and intent of the federal reserve banking system that those who propounded the suggestion soon found it convenient to abandon their indefensible attitude."

Meanwhile additional opposition to the administration's bill loomed in the announcement that Senator Nye (R) of North Dakota will offer the so-called Coughlin central bank bill as an amendment to the pending measure. Other amendments will be offered by Senator Fletcher (D) of Florida, chairman of the senate banking and currency committee.

PRESIDENT ENTERS CONGRESS FIGHT TO SAVE TAX PROGRAM

expressed themselves as favoring an excess profits tax as a substitute for the president's graduated corporation income tax proposal, the issue now is regarded as doubtful.

Division Is Close

So close was the division of opinion among the Democrats after hearing from the president that one vote, yet to be recorded, may determine whether the graduated tax principle laid down by the president will be recognized.

The president's proposal for a graduated corporation tax was regarded as an essential part of his program to tax bigness and bring about decentralization of industry. "The principal of the graduated tax" said Chairman Doughton (D) of North Carolina of the house committee.

To prevent a decision from being overturned, the committee's Democrats had tentatively agreed to let the majority decide, and then to vote as a unit against Republicans on the committee.

Mr. Roosevelt's statement at his press conference opposing deductions from taxation for corporations charitable gifts was said to be due to strong propaganda for such action. The house committee Doughton said, had not even considered it.

Tentative Agreement

Washington, July 25.—A new tax bill, based upon President Roosevelt's tax message but modifying his program, was tentatively agreed on by house ways and means Democrats today.

The proposed bill is variously estimated to raise from 200 to 350 million dollars a year.

The bill as tentatively agreed to follows: Increases in individual income surtaxes beginning at incomes of $150,000 a year, with a surtax of 54 per cent and rising to 75 per cent on incomes over $100,000. In addition the normal four per cent income tax stands.

A graduated corporation tax which probably would fluctuate between 12 and three-quarters and 14 and three-quarters per cent. Present rate is 13 and three-quarters per cent.

Excess profits tax beginning on profits over eight or ten per cent instead of present 12 and one-half per cent.

Inheritance tax graduated up to 75 per cent on inheritances over $100,000 with $50,000 exemption for families and $10,000 exemption for collateral heirs.

Gift tax rates three-fourths of the inheritance tax rates.

Anniversary Of Dollfuss Slaying

(International News Service)

VIENNA, July 25.—Threats of a new Nazi revolt were aired in Vienna today as all Austria commemorated the first anniversary of the assassination of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss.

While quiet, formal rites were in progress in honor of Dollfuss, slain in the unsuccessful Nazi revolt last year, Nazis distributed thousands of leaflets predicting trouble for July 30 and 31—first anniversary of the hanging of 13 Nazis charged with responsibility for Dollfuss' death.

The leaflets themselves were vague in their prophecies but word of mouth reports carried rumors of a new revolt.

MID-SUMMER TEA AT JOHNSON HOME

Numbered among lovely mid-summer social events, was a delightfully informal tea this afternoon in the home of Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, on Moody avenue, for the pleasure of Miss Undine Phillips, of Elm Court, Butler, whose engagement to Frank Louis Weigand, Jr., of Butler, was announced a few days ago.

Upwards of one hundred guests were received in the library by the hostess and honoree, between the hours of 5 to 7, many of the younger social set driving over from Butler for the affair.

Aides in entertaining were sisters of the bride-elect, Mrs. Roland LeRoy Ehrman, Mrs. Ferdinand Diebold, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Craig Succop, of Butler, together with Mrs. Phillips Johnson, who is here from Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Houghton Phillips and Mrs. H. C. Phillips, of Butler.

At 7 o'clock, the family was joined by the husbands and escorts for a buffet supper under the pergola in the beautiful gardens which surround the Johnson residence.

Miss Phillips and Mr. Weigand will be married Tuesday, August 20, at Elm Court, the home of the former's father, Benjamin D. Phillips.

MARKET EMPLOYEES OUTING WEDNESDAY

Employees of the National Market of this city journeyed to McKee's Beach at Leesburg, on Wednesday evening where they enjoyed a ham fry. The occasion proved lively and most enjoyable to those in attendance, which numbered fifteen or more.

An appetizing menu was served at 6:30 o'clock.

Later informal pastimes filled in the hours, including a period of swimming.

FIELD CLUB DANCE WILL ATTRACT MANY

While many residents seek the seashore and lakes, during these sweltering summer months there are many left behind who haven't joined this stream of travelers and they depend greatly on the country sites as a means of escaping the extreme heat.

New Castle Field Club members have enjoyed their club house in particular this season, as it has provided a cool spot and a change from the city. Various parties have been given for their entertainment, and on Saturday evening of this week, another of their dance series will be held. C. L. Shira and committee are in charge and it is for members and house guests. Many of the young college set who are home will share this occasion with their elders.

An out of town orchestra has been engaged for this date, and the opening tune will be played at 9:30 o'clock.

LOVELY PARTY AT C. H. YOUNG HOME

Summer's social calendar was brightened Wednesday afternoon, with the party given for Helen McConaghy, bride-elect, by Mrs. Thomas Mansell of New Wilmington and her sister, Miss Jean Young, in the latter's home on Wallace avenue.

Seven tables were used for the bridge contests, fortunate winners of high score awards being Geraldine Turk, Rhoda Leslie and Mrs. John Boyd. Miss McConaghy was presented a beautiful hostess gift. An attractively appointed and delicious luncheon was served, the aides including Mrs. C. H. Young, mother of the hostesses; Mrs. George Weddell, Mrs. Edward McBride and Miss Dorothy Young.

Out of town guests were Mrs. C. W. McKee, Mrs. E. B. Russell, Mrs. Leon Marshall and Mrs. John Boyd, all of New Wilmington.

WHITE SHRINE NO. 14 BREAKFAST-BRIDGE

What is anticipated to be one of the loveliest parties of August, is the breakfast-bridge to be held in the Cathedral on Thursday, the fifteenth, by members of White Shrine No. 14, with the serving to take place at 10 a. m. in the diningroom.

Immediately following this feature, the guests will be privileged to compete for honors in contract and auction bridge, 500 and bingo. Prizes will be awarded the various winners, at the close of the entertainment.

Committee in charge, includes Mrs. Minnie Dufford, chairman, Mrs. Doris Sankey, Mrs. Emma Leslie, Mrs. Lona Bray, Mrs. Alice Steen and Miss Mollie Davis. This is the third party of this nature to be given by the White Shrine women, and each has proved a decided success.

SHOWER COURTESY FOR RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Jack Fulkerson, nee Betty Kehna, was complimented with a pretty shower affair Wednesday evening in one of the popular tearooms, when Helen Truxell of Lorain avenue entertained a coterie of intimate friends.

Bridge was in play at three tables, the attractive prize falling to Mrs. Bertha Miller and Virginia Britton. Pink and white tones were favored in game accessories and also in the delicious lunch which was served downstairs.

While at the table, the bride was handed a telegram directing her to seek elsewhere for a surprise. This, she discovered, was a collection of dainty packages revealing beautiful gifts, expressive of best wishes from the girls.

At Gaston Park.

A. A. club associates with their families held the second annual picnic recently at Gaston park. Places were arranged for 20 guests at a long table which was centered with colorful garden flowers. Orchid and green predominated in appointments.

After partaking of a delicious meal the group seated themselves about a big bonfire and sang songs for Mrs. Leishman, whose birthday occurred on July 19. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, singing and story telling.

Plans were made for a wienner roast to be held in the near future, details maturing under the leadership of Elizabeth Leishman, who also had charge of the picnic event.

GOOD WILL MOVE OF MERIT

ONE of the best good-will stunts of the summer is the action taken by James E. Van Zandt, national chairman of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, in inviting a delegation of Japanese army and navy reservists to tour the United States and attend the national convention of the V. F. W. at New Orleans on September 15.

The invitation has been accepted, and four retired army and navy officers have been designated at Tokyo to make the trip. They will represent the Japanese Reservists' Association, which numbers some 3,000,000 ex-service men.

Little things like this can have a great deal of importance. The reasons why Japan and America should be friends are weightier than the reasons why they would be enemies. Bringing the representatives of two great service organizations together in a cordial host-and-guest relationship will help to remind us of it—and will make the maintenance of peace just that much easier.

HAS HE TURNED SOFT?

Entering upon his new duties as director of public works in New York City, General Johnson says he is afraid he will not get a square deal from the opposition press.

This is the first time we ever had reason to believe that the former Blue Eagle chieftain is thin-skinned.

Certainly a man who dishes out the irony, sarcasm and vitriolic comment with the generosity of the general should be able to take it when someone else cuts loose.

From the standpoint of public policy, it will be a good thing for the press to watch the expenditure of millions for metropolitan boondoggling. The taxpayers' welfare comes first, and there's no reason at all why any relief administrator, least of all the barking general, should be treated with journalistic kid gloves.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT'S JOB

The well known political writer, Frank Kent, does not envy the man who will succeed Roosevelt in the white house whether it be two years from now or six years from now. The situation which will face the new president is stated rather succinctly in the following paragraph:

"The president who follows Mr. Roosevelt will have about the toughest job ever given the head of the nation. He will somehow have to go back, cut down relief, balance the budget, dismantle the federal machine, discard all the novel government gadgets and impose painful taxes. That is, he will have to do all these things if the national equilibrium is to be regained and a calamitous crash averted. Moreover, he will have to do them while the crack-pot radicals all over the country howl for his blood and he is denounced by the professional 'forward-looking men' as a reactionary, a standpatter, a tool of Big Business, and a heartless Bourbon, who favors 'property rights' and is against 'human rights'."

THESE TROUBLESOME SCIENTISTS

Are there no constants, no absolute standards, left in this uncertain world? For lo, these many years, the speed of light has been regarded as practically unvarying, and upon its supposed 186,000 odd miles per second there have been built gigantic mathematical structures. Now a group of scientists peering into a mile-long vacuum tube out in California suspect that the speed of light is affected by sun and moon tide forces.

That's the trouble with scientists, always changing things. If it weren't for them, our world would still be pleasantly flat, with a jumping off place; eclipses would be supernatural threats, there would be no arguments over evolution, and we all could dash around clad in bear skins and brandishing stone clubs.

On the other hand, but for the scientists, we wouldn't have motor cars, radios, movie stars or parachute jumpers. If scientists could only find a way to eliminate taxes they would be welcome to do anything they pleased with the speed of light.

THE FALLING BIRTHRATE

Dr. O. E. Baker of the Department of Agriculture, who has been studying population trends, believes that the civilization of this country and of many European nations is threatened with extinction by race suicide.

Since 1924 there has been a steady drop in the American birthrate. Fewer births also are being recorded in Great Britain, France, Germany, Belgium, Switzerland, Austria and the Scandinavian countries. Even Japan has had a 10 per cent. decline since 1925. In China, India, most of Africa and rural South America there is no appreciable drop.

In general, the decline in births is most pronounced in countries which have made the greatest economic advance and where the individual has attained greatest progress. The condition poses a perplexing problem for the philosophers. Do the liberation and advancement of the individual, as contrasted with the family, mean the doom of society?

It may be that some wholly unforeseen economic development will reverse the birth trend in at least some of the countries studied. It is difficult to believe that a falling birthrate can go on indefinitely in such vast areas of the earth's surface. Of all her laws, Nature is most insistent upon the Law of Compensation. A state of disequilibrium in the matter of births, it would appear, can not well be permanent.

A successful farmer is one who can pay enough taxes to enable the government to pay his losses.

It is easy to understand why parents don't reason with Junior. It takes so much less time to swat him.

True, Europe has old-age pensions. But pensions of that size wouldn't tempt our old folks to confess their age.

A valet of U. S. Grant is dead at the age of 102. The great general, judging by photographs, is one of the last men we would ever have suspected of having had a valet.

Fall styles, says a modiste, will swing back to the gay nineties. We are indeed living in four days when it is necessary to go back forty years or more for a touch of gaiety.

Ordnance officers fail to agree as to the efficacy of present anti-aircraft guns in a war. However, if it's going to take a war to answer the question we'd prefer to remain in ignorance.

THE PRESENT TRIFLES
These little bits of laughter which we scarcely think about.
Will be the joys remembered when the days have worn them out.
These happy hours of leisure which go winging by the door
Fill be priced at treble value when they come to use no more.

There may be merrier laughter in the years to come, he said.
But we'll be looking backward when our happiness has fled.
And then we shall remember some bright moment of today
And wish we'd know its value ere we'd let it drift away.

The songs we now are singing and scarcely think about at all.
On some far off occasion we shall tenderly recall.
And down the distant future as Time's changes swift occur,
No doubt we'll tell each other just how happy once we were.

These little bits of laughter seem but trifling joys today.
We think the greater blisses must await us down the way.
But whatsoever fortune has of joy and peace to give,
These present fleeting pleasures shall be cherished while we live.

KEEP YOUR NERVES IN CHECK
Do not allow yourself to become upset over trifles.
It takes very little to cause you to reach a highly excited and nervous state that lasts for hours.

It may be that you have some insidious ailment that is manifesting itself through disease-ridden nerves. But it is more likely that you lack self-control.

When you let inconsequential matters cause you to rave and rant, there must be some good reason. Often you find yourself tired and worn out at the end of a day.

Nerves on edge, you are cross and irritable. Your intense engrossment in certain lines of work is wearing you out.

When you seek relief, you fail to relax, you get no respite. You wonder at times how long you shall be able to go ahead with so little time off.

Others do it and still can keep calm under all conditions. It is a matter of better self-control. If you are sensible you will try to exercise your will-power.

If you wish to preserve your usefulness, you must conquer your nerves. Consult a doctor.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:21. Sun rises tomorrow 4:52.

The Relief Administrator in Washington has been asked to support legislation to deport the aliens, hundreds of thousands of them, who are on relief in this country. In addition it is claimed many of these aliens are bad eggs and should be sent back where they belong. That sounds reasonable anyhow.

And if you're not too depressed you'll remember that prosperity often had it's headaches.

Son in college was applying pressure for more money from home. "I cannot understand why you call yourself a kind father," he wrote his dad, "when you haven't sent me a check for three weeks. What kind of kindness do you call that?" "That's unremitting kindness," wrote the father in his next letter.

Some man in New York claims he can produce barkless dogs. Dog owners will not want them as that kind would not annoy their neighbors.

Poet—Does my poem lack merit, then? Editor—Not at all. It takes true genius to make "Hortense" rhyme with "magnolia" as you have.

Political campaigns are for the primary purpose of convincing unbelievers that the party's platform promises will be kept.

Put gas masks on everybody and everybody would look like—well, like everybody else.

A fellow up our way, slightly bald, has discovered a great thing to keep his hair in. It looks like a cigar box.

"My husband is the most stubborn man in the world. Sometimes I think I shall have to get a divorce."

"What's happened now?" "Well, we had an engagement to meet in front of the postoffice at four o'clock. It was 5:30 when I got there and he won't admit that the rest he got while he was waiting did him good."

President Roosevelt made good on one of his promises with a vengeance, and that was bringing the liquor back.

THOSE WHO CLAMOR

As elections approach, the atmosphere, laden with the frequent utterances of the New Deal is further thickened with political doctrine. The cry of the reformer is added to the demands of those in distress. Criticism is rampant, uncertainty persists and the daily news would give the impression that the difficulties of modern times are without parallel. Yet Daniel Webster's description of conditions almost a century ago, is as apt today as it was in 1838. If the ramparts of the republic and the institutions and customs which have become a part of our American civilization successfully withstood the attacks of adversity, the trusts of reformers and advanced thinkers then, there is hope that they will endure through current trials. It was March 12, 1838, that Daniel Webster said:

"There are persons who constantly clamor. They complain of oppression, speculation, and pernicious influence of accumulated wealth. They cry out loudly against all banks and corporations, and all means by which small capitalists become united in order to produce important and beneficial results. They carry on mad hostility against all established institutions. They would choke the fountain of industry, and dry all streams. In a country of unbounded liberty, they clamor against oppression. In a country of perfect equality, they would move heaven and earth against privilege and monopoly. In a country where property is more evenly divided than anywhere else, they rend the air shouting agrarian doctrines. In a country where wages of labor are high beyond parallel, they would teach the laborer he is but an oppressed slave. Sir, what can such men want? What do they mean?"

La Follettes Ascending.
Move Ahead Of Huey Long.
May Prevent Third Party.

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street
By LESLIE EICHEL
(Central Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, July 25.—The La Follettes again are on the ascendancy throughout a large part of the interior of the United States. That is interesting for two reasons:
1. They may reduce Senator Huey Long of Louisiana to impotency.
2. They may prevent the formation of a third party and swing progressive sentiment in favor of President Roosevelt's re-election.

KINGFISH
The Kingfish has lost much of the progressive support he once had, for several reasons.

His dictatorship in Louisiana has assumed proportions of a terroristic regime; and his share-the-wealth program, as well as his promises for a wider democracy have evaporated in Louisiana, where Long has absolute power. Progressives recall that Hitler made similar promises.

HIGHER TAXES
The ascendancy of the La Follettes will have a direct bearing on future federal tax plans.
The La Follette group, in return for its support, certainly will expect the administration to raise income and inheritance taxes. That is a popular subject in the granary state—and the administration could not hope to carry them unless it acceded.

LABOR
Labor is not so potent a force as agriculture. But here, again, we see labor swinging toward the La Follette group. Organized labor expresses little faith in the Roosevelt administration any more. Thus the La Follette group of progressives has two powerful groups behind it to a large degree—agriculturalists and laborites.

CAPITAL
Financial New York, naturally, is opposed to the La Follette bloc. And it now is bitterly opposed to the Roosevelt administration. But, if a choice has to be made, it is seen that a conservative Republican has no "show," support may be given grudgingly to President Roosevelt, with efforts being made to elect a congress that will "hold him in line."

POSSIBILITY
Of course there is a bare possibility that the Republicans would nominate such a person as Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota.
If so, the progressive support would go over to Nye.
But could the conservative Republicans support a Nye any more than conservative Democrats can support a Roosevelt?

INSURRECTION
In the meantime, insurrections rake congress.

Progressives—both Democratic and Republican—are not hesitant to put President Roosevelt "on the spot." They realize their rising power.

One of the chief Roosevelt supporters in the house, Representative Maury Maverick, Democrat of Texas, tore things wide open the other day (to the applause of the progressives) by denouncing the Tydings-McCormack military disaffection bill. This bill purportedly was being shoved through by Secretary of the Navy Swanson.

Representative Maury, a war veteran, used these strong terms:

"The military affairs committee, of which I am a member, has recently reported out without a quorum, and without reading the bill, what is known as the "military disaffection bill, and which in my opinion, is one of the most outrageous invasions of human rights ever attempted."

"It gags the press; it gags every liberty given in the constitution of the United States. It violates every precedent of American liberty and adopts the philosophy of Communism and Fascism—that is, that the civil population shall be subject to the military instead of our civil government controlling the military."

"It should be known as the 'Stalin-Hitler bill.' It is the first time any such attempt has been made in peace time; I consider it one of the most dangerous bills ever reported out of a committee."

Maverick said the bill passed the senate "almost entirely by accident."

It would give naval and military authorities broad powers to censor and to punish the press for publication of articles held subversive and circulated in the army and the navy.

DISAFFECTION?

The bill raises the question whether Communists have created disaffection in army or navy.

The only figures at hand are on recruiting, and they show that applications for both services are high. General MacArthur, chief of staff, is understood to have told congressmen that he considers the bill "silly" and unnecessary. The progressives, however, consider it far more dangerous than silly.

TYDINGS
The progressives of both parties, incidentally, are going gunning for Senator Millard E. Tydings when he comes up for re-election in Maryland in 1938. He is termed by the progressives as being as reactionary as his Republican senatorial neighbors in Delaware.

Yet his stand on international trade and economics is considered by economists as among the most enlightened in congress.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

IT COULD BE WORSE

If the citizens of Pennsylvania think they are taxed beyond all reason for the support of the idle good-for-nothing mendicants within their borders, they should think of California taxpayers and shed tears for them.

During the last eleven months, 10,000 roaming boys between the ages of sixteen and twenty have registered as "transients" in Los Angeles. Many more youthful wanderers undoubtedly failed to register. Of this number, 1,051 came from Texas, or more than from any other state. Every state in the Union sent its contribution, Delaware with nine and Vermont with ten, had the fewest. Sixty per cent came from cities of more than 25,000 population. Chicago, El Paso and New York top the list of "contributing" cities.

The climate of California, the Utopia promised by Upton Sinclair, the laissez-faire attitude of the citizens of California, in general, attract the scum of America to that State.

Pity the California taxpayer.

Burns, El Paso, Tex., is wrong when he states that the twinkling of the stars is caused by their light rays being struck and deflected by ether waves. In the first place it is not positively known whether ether, that 'something' which pervades all space, is in motion or not. Secondly, twinkling of the stars is caused by the refraction of their light rays by earth's atmosphere."

DEMOCRACY STILL SHOWING DISUNION

Washington Bureau
Central Press
1900 S Street

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 25.—When Congressman Bertrand H. Snell of New York remarks that "President Roosevelt has come perilously close to what some people call impeachable grounds" (in urging the passage of certain legislation despite doubts as to its constitutionality), it doesn't signify much.

Snell, as Republican leader in the house of representatives, has strong partisan reasons for finding the worst fault he can with the present White House tenant.

It is of considerably more consequence that a substantial number of Democrats on Capitol Hill are as critical (though more confidentially so) of the presidential utterance than is the up-state New Yorker.

DEMOCRATS MORE SO

My own observation has been that conservative Democrats generally are, consistently, far stricter constitutionalists than the average Republican.

A. G. O. P. statesman, who is mightily outraged by the slightest hint at unconstitutionality by a Democratic administration, may be quite complacent toward the same thing when his own group is in power. An old-line Jeffersonian, however, is as resentful of what he considers an unconstitutional trend by a Democrat as by a Republican regime.

That, Speaker Joseph W. Byrns, of the house of representatives, once told me, is the reason why, in his opinion, the Democrats traditionally have been worse split into factions than the Republicans.

"We Democrats," he said, "have principles. If we disagree on them, neither side will yield, and, divided, we're beaten.

"The Republicans, with no principles, can compromise easily, and win, because united."

"SPLIT THROUGH THE MIDDLE"

I had this talk with Speaker Byrns (he was not the speaker) just after the 1928 election. The succeeding election, in 1932, did not give the impression that Aunty Democracy was disunited, but that was a freak election. There is plenty of disunion in Democracy's ranks now.

Conservative and radical Democrats probably are no farther apart than conservative and radical Republicans. But Republicans are mostly conservative; their radical bloc is a small one. The Democrats are split right through the middle. They are worse split than appears superficially. Comparatively few of them, like Senators Carter Glass and Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, are in vociferous revolt against the administration, but it is notorious that many of its nominal supporters, such as Senators Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas and Pat Harrison of Mississippi, are totally out of sympathy with its policies.

WHAT F. D. R. DID SAY

President Roosevelt did not, to tell the truth, urge, in effect, as Congressman Snell implies that he did, the enactment of laws of doubtful constitutionality.

Specifically, he was discussing the Guffey bill, to regulate the soft coal industry.

His plain implication was that, in his judgment, the proposed law is constitutional—but he recognized that there are many authorities to the contrary. In substance, his request was, "Pass it; I have as good a right to my opinion as they have."

NOT CUMMINGS' DUTY

"But why," demanded the critics, "doesn't Attorney General Homer S. Cummings (who is the president's official legal adviser) 'notify congress that, in his opinion, the law will be constitutional?'"

The answer is that he doesn't have to.

The attorney general is adviser to the PRESIDENT, to the EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS—and, by comparatively recent enactment, to the Veterans' Bureau.

He is not enjoined to advise congress. Maybe he hasn't the right to do so.

Eight times, in the past, beginning in 1820, attorneys general have been asked to give legal advice to congress. In each instance they have refused, on the ground that they are constitutionally limited to be executive, not legislative legal advisers.

Maybe Attorney General Cummings already HAS advised the White House.

If precedent counts, his responsibility ended there.

Scouts Will Go To Camp Fithian

GROVE CITY, July 25.—About 80 Grove City Boy Scouts will enroll for the summer outing at Camp Fithian, along Slippery Rock Creek, from August 5 to 11, according to Wm. E. Amos, Mr. Amos, football coach at Grove City college and former star at W. & J. College, will direct a staff of 12 counselors and instructors.

A busy schedule, featuring sports and manual training, as well as work for Scout merit badges, has been outlined by Mr. Amos. He also plans a period of football instruction, and a basket picnic and evening program for parents. A Scout Camp Band is also planned.

The instructors will include William Daugherty, James Kelly, William White, Woodrow Bashline, Edward Book, Charles Atwell, James Forbes, Jr., Arthur Armour, W. A. Wright, Wilfred Clelland and Doctor C. A. Kutz.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. July 24, six arrests on charges as follows: Gambling 2, drunkenness 1, drunkenness and disorderly conduct 1, on warrant 1.

Several years ago the city of New Castle purchased several floodlights which were installed at the New Castle airport, Route 422, which is the New Castle-New Bedford highway. They bought the floodlights to aid distressed air pilots. Several times since their installation the lights have been turned on to guide pilots at night. The airport is operating and should anyone at night hear an airplane they believe to be in distress they can call 9365R6 and the lights will be turned on by airport attaches.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne imposed a unique sentence yesterday on one of two young men who faced him in police court. The proprietor of a beverage place alleged they had caused him trouble and he did not want them in their place. The one young man was not accused of anything but attempting to aid his friend. However, the case of the other youth was continued and should he enter the business place he will be brought into police court and sentenced. Proprietors of places where beverages are sold and dancing permitted receive a refund for good behavior and when trouble is indicated they usually telephone the police station in order that police authorities will know that they are co-operating rather than inviting trouble.

City sealer of weights and measures A. Reid English during 1934, collected $845.28 of which $402.50, was from coal and coke licenses and $442.78, from the sale of scrapped street car rails. A small balance which had not been paid to the sealer when the fiscal year started was accounted for later.

The city did not realize much money from the city engineer's department during 1934, the total being $602.79 which included a balance of $134.50 owed the treasurer. The money earned follows: from excavation permits $283.50; from building permits, $67.00; from curb gasoline pump permits $200.00; from inspections, $16.00; from sale of blueprints, $5.94; from sale of maps, $13.00 and roller rental, $2.00.

Not many transients are passing through the city these days according to Chief of Detectives William McMullen who ascribes this to the fingerprint system. He said word has been carried by jungle grapevine that if they are on the Wanted List they are certain to be tagged if they are caught in New Castle.

BOY IS DROWNED GOING TO CIRCUS

WHEELING, W. Va., July 25.—John Wallace, 10, drowned Wednesday while attempting to swim to Wheeling Island to see a circus. The drowning occurred shortly after Rudy Hudlik and Joe Kostelsky, each 15, of McMechen, were rescued. Their ship upset and they were dragged into the suction at the McMechen dam.

The strength of human love is a truer evidence of the spiritual than the most convincing ghost.

Fat All Gone Never Felt So Good Before

It was so simple! I ate what I liked, took no strenuous exercises, did not weaken my body with drastic purgatives—yet day by day I felt myself getting lighter, the fat seemed to slip away. Now I have a lovely, graceful figure—and I never felt better in my life!

That, in brief, is what thousands of women who have reduced the Marmola way might well tell you. Four times a day they take a little tablet containing in exactly the right quantity a world-famous corrective for abnormal obesity. A corrective prescribed by physicians everywhere and acknowledged to be the most effective known.

Since 1907, more than 20 million packages of Marmola have been purchased. Could any better recommendation be had?

Today—buy a package of Marmola, and start at once. Soon you will experience Marmola's benefits. When you have gone far enough, stop taking Marmola. And you will bless the day you first discovered this marvelous reducing agent!

MISSIONARY MEETING

The July meeting of the Women's Missionary society took place at the home of Mrs. Scott Kirk, with Mrs. Reed as leader. The program included readings from women and missions, by Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Stevenson. A letter on White Cross work was read by the president, Mrs. Carr. The program was interspersed with music, with Mrs. Carlton Minich at the piano. A business meeting was held and reports given by solicitors and treasurers. The meeting was followed by a social period.

CHURCH NOTES

Steel Helmets To Be Dissolved

Unification Of Three Major Veterans Associations Is Planned In Germany

SELDTE'S REIGN IS NEARING END

By PIERRE J. HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 25.—Unification of the three major veterans' associations to bring them more into line with Nazi ideas and end Minister of Labor Franz Seldte's reign over the ex-soldiers loomed today through the anti-Jew and anti-church smoke screen thrown up to hide internal dissent in Germany.

Doom of Seldte's Stahlhelm was sounded when he went to Berchtesgaden recently to appeal personally to Adolf Hitler following bans on the veterans' organizations in numerous local districts.

The "Steel Helmets" formerly a weighty political factor with thousands of members, will shortly be dissolved, it was learned from a well-informed source. Then the equally powerful Kyffhauser Bund, the American Legion of Germany—innocent bystander in the present quarrel, and the disabled War Veterans' League, will be amalgamated under a single title.

The title of the Unified Veterans' league will not be the Stahlhelm. Nor will it be commanded by Seldte. This action is expected to end one of the major sources of disputes now troubling Germany.

Direct charges of systematic anti-Nazi propaganda were leveled as authorities at Schwerin in northern Germany, dissolved "Steel Helmets" branches today at nearby Parchim, Ludwigslust and Waren, and seized their property. The propaganda culminated, it was said, in an attack on a storm trooper at Stolpe and in sabotage of the anti-air defense league.

Meanwhile the church was assumed riotous proportions today when police emergency squads were called out to disperse a crowd before the house of Provost Judetz at Stettin. A crowd of 1,000 demonstrated in protest against the provost's sermon of last Sunday, when he allegedly attacked the state.

Another disturbance arose at Hannover, when Willy Baer, a Jewish store owner, was taken into protective custody for allegedly threatening to discharge a crippled war veteran. Police prevented the demonstrating crowd's smashing Baer's windows.

Johnson Appeals For Aid In State To Beat Chiselers

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 25.—Another appeal for public support in eliminating chiselers was sounded today by Robert L. Johnson, state relief administrator.

"We cannot know everything that is going on in the families of the 419,122 persons on the relief rolls," he said. "No matter how thorough our investigators may be, there is always a chance that they have overlooked or been misled on a point which may be common knowledge in the immediate neighborhood."

It is essential that individuals and persons in the state of Pennsylvania who are interested in a fair relief administration report to the relief organization, any and all cases of apparent irregularity. These complaints are immediately followed up, and in some cases, result in additional information which is valuable to us."

Johnson specifically cited three chiseling practices which he asked complaints when known by the public: Obtaining of relief funds by persons who have incomes from work or private sources; obtaining funds in excess of needs; and obtaining of funds by persons who refused jobs.

BAKER HEIRS ADD TO MYTHICAL ASSETS

HARRISBURG.—Heirs to the mythical Jacob Baker estate who for more than a half century have laid claim to the lands on which City Hall and important business centers in Philadelphia, as well as other parts of the State, are located, have today added a Scranton coal colliery to the unproven assets of the estate.

Secretary of Internal Affairs Thomas A. Logue said today that claims that the colliery lands at Scranton once belonged to Jacob Baker are unfounded, according to records in the Land Bureau of the Department of Internal Affairs. Every few weeks inquiries are made concerning settlement of the Baker estate and distribution of the extensive land tracts which the heirs claim were owned by Baker. In each case Secretary Logue replies that the Commonwealth's land records fail to disclose the reported large holdings of Baker.

DINNER AT COTTAGE ENJOYED BY B. P. W.

Although the water-man, who has interfered in numerous picnics lately, did some threatening with lightning, he spared the Business and Professional Women's club members from any downpour of rain last evening when they gathered at their Lakewood cottage for a chicken dinner.

The dinner, which had been prepared by a group of the members, under the leadership of Mrs. Hazel Boyd, president of the club, was delicious, and the outing a huge success. There were about 20 members and guests present.

Allow Big Sum For Township Roads

Nine Million Allotted For Roads And Bridges During Biennium

HARRISBURG.—One of the most important bills passed by the 1935 Legislature from a highway standpoint, according to Warren Van Dyke, Secretary of Highways, is the Furman bill, which appropriates $9,000,000 to the department, to be expended in 1936 and 1937 for the maintenance and construction of roads and bridges in second-class townships.

One of the important objectives of the act, Secretary Van Dyke says, is that it assures relief to the real estate owner by providing that township road taxes shall be reduced in 1936 and 1937 by an amount equal to that to be expended in the township by the department each year as compared with the 1933 road tax levy.

Value Slump. Smaller Here

Estimated Values Of Lawrence County Farms Given By Government

FARMS INCREASE IN NUMBERS NOW

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent,
New Castle News
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—The slump in farm real estate values during the past half decade has been less marked in Lawrence county than Pennsylvania as a whole, according to a survey of the Keystone state made public today by the census bureau.

The value of farm land and buildings in Lawrence county was reported as $11,209,300 on January 1 this year as against $15,638,300 on April 1, 1930. This represented a decline of $4,429,000, or about 24 per cent. In the same period, on the other hand, the value of farms in Pennsylvania as a whole fell off almost 29 per cent, from $12,037,645 to $8,618,499.

Despite the decrease in valuation, Lawrence county farms were recorded as increasing in number and acreage. Farms in the county increased in number from 2,236 on April 1, 1930, to 2,655 on January 1 this year. In total size they climbed from 163,388 acres to 180,428 acres.

Of Pennsylvania's 67 counties, 40 had more valuable farm real estate than did Lawrence county on January 1.

In the period of April 1, 1930, to January 1, 1935, the value of farm real estate fell from $21,942,855 to $18,097,596 in Butler county, from $13,349,936 to $10,540,825 in Beaver county and from $22,445,786 to $15,869,579 in Mercer county.

May Be Break In Robles Kidnaping

Arrest Is Made At San Diego, Cal., For Tucson, Arizona, Sheriff

(International News Service)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 25.—Believed to be the long-awaited "break" in the Robles kidnaping case, Doniciano Cabrera, 44-year-old former prize fighter, was held in jail here today for Sheriff John F. Belton of Tucson, Ariz.

Technically Doniciano was arrested on a felony warrant charging aggravated battery. He is said to have thrashed Goya Estrada, 14, who carried messages for kidnapers of 12-year-old June Robles in April, 1934. Estrada was beaten by a man who crawled into his room in June, 1934 after the lad had testified in court.

According to Sheriff Belton, Cabrera is wanted for questioning in the case on the theory he assertedly was hired to beat the boy by parties close to the actual kidnapers. Cabrera will not be questioned until the arrival here of officers from Tucson today, but according to deputy sheriffs who arrested him working on an SRA project here, he has admitted beating Goya, but denied any connection with the Robles case.

Record Year For Fruit Canning

MERCER, July 25.—More fruit will be canned this year in Mercer county than any year for the past five, is the prediction of economists.

This is due to the record crops of both early and late fruit which has reduced the price to a point where the major portion of housewives are taking advantage of it.

The failure of the 1934 peach crop also makes this fact more than a remote possibility due to the expected large crop this year.

HILDEBRAND RULES IN MERCER CASE

MERCER, July 25.—In an opinion filed here today by Judge R. L. Hildebrand of Lawrence county in the John F. McConnell estate controversy over an action by the county commissioners to collect $4500, no final ruling was made. Mrs. John F. McConnell of New Wilmington is now administratrix of the estate, John F. McConnell, now deceased, was county treasurer, and the claim results from a surcharge by county auditors in the matter of redemption of court house bonds. Defense claims the statute of limitation has expired and the amount cannot be collected. Additional testimony will be taken.

WHY, JIMMY... HOW IS IT THAT YOU'RE EATING OUT HERE?

IT'S TOO HOT INSIDE. MOTHER IS STILL BOILING THE CLOTHES

BOILING CLOTHES ON A SWeltering DAY LIKE THIS! AND SCRUBBING TOO... NO DOUBT! I MUST SPEAK TO HER...

JIMMY JUST TOLD ME YOU WERE BOILING YOUR WASH. I JUST HAD TO COME IN AND TELL YOU ABOUT RINSO!

NEARLY EVERYBODY AT BRIDGE YESTERDAY SEEMED CRAZY ABOUT IT. I HEARD IT PRAISED A DOZEN TIMES

OF COURSE YOU'VE HEARD ABOUT IT! BUT WHY DON'T YOU USE IT? IT SOAKS CLOTHES 4 OR 5 SHADES WHITER WITHOUT SCRUBBING OR BOILING

I'M AFRAID I'VE BEEN OLD-FASHIONED. I'LL TRY IT

NEXT WASHDAY

GEE, IT'S NICE AND COOL IN HERE, MOM

YOU'D NEVER THINK IT WAS WASHDAY... WOULD YOU, JIMMY? I'M SO GLAD I CHANGED TO RINSO

"Rinso speeds up dishwashing, too," says Mrs. J. M. Marshall, 230 N. Walnut St.

I THINK it is a shame the way some women still wear themselves out doing their wash. They must know about Rinso, because it's advertised everywhere. Yet they are plain stubborn. If they'd once let Rinso soak the dirt out they'd learn how easy it makes washday, how much whiter it gets the clothes. And Rinso for dishes—my, how it speeds up that job, too!"

MRS. J. M. MARSHALL,
230 N. Walnut St., New Castle, Pa.

In tub or washing machine Rinso gets clothes 4 or 5 shades whiter—taffy. The makers of 34 famous washers recommend it! Rinso gives a lot of creamy suds—even in hard water. Get the BIG household package of Rinso at your grocer's. Use it for all cleaning. It's economical.

Indians sold Oil for $20 a quart

Much has been written about the foolish Indians who sold Manhattan Island for $24.00, but a famous research chemist addressing the American Chemical Society told this story:

"During the Revolutionary War, the American soldiers learned from the Indians that bathing in petroleum was beneficial for rheumatism. These soldiers paid as high as $20 a quart for the crude oil brought by the Indians."

Think of the amazing development of the use of oil since that day through constant research and improved refining processes! Today you can drive up to a Richfield station and buy a quart of Richlube 100% pure Pennsylvania Motor Oil for only 30 cents.

But there are no monuments in Venezuela or America to cars wrecked each year through improper lubrication. Richlube All-Point Lubrication will protect and prolong the life of your car. Find out about it today.

Decision Of Court In Favor Of Green

Bill In Equity By John J. McCoy Over Union Brewing Stock Dismissed

In the equity of John G. McCoy against Adolph Green, growing out of a dispute over the distribution of promotion stock of the Union Brewing Company, Judge James A. Chambers has handed down an opinion in which he dismisses the bill, for the reason that the plaintiff has failed to sustain allegations, particularly as to an alleged contract or agreement. The opinion is delivered "nisi" which means that it becomes absolute unless exceptions are filed within ten days.

Several hearings were held in court which showed that the Union Brewing Company was promoted by John J. McCoy, E. O. Haun, Louis G. Genkinger and Adolph Green. In his testimony McCoy had claimed that he made the original suggestion for the forming of the company, was denied.

McCoy claimed that the promotion stock was to have been split four ways, and that he was entitled to 12,500 shares, which Green had refused to issue to him. Green's contention was that the stock was to be distributed on a merit system according to the work which each one had done. He did not believe that McCoy's activities entitled him to the amount which he claimed.

The court's decision is a victory for Green.

CLOUDBURST AT CANTON, O.

CANTON, O., July 25.—A rain storm of cloudburst proportions struck Canton at about 9:30 last night and in less than an hour it was estimated that two inches of rain had fallen.

More than 500 automobiles were stalled in downtown streets. Market avenue was flooded in many places, making it impossible for pedestrians to cross.

All traffic was tied up for more than an hour and a truck was carried a short distance down a street by the turbulent waters.

Nearly two feet of water covered the intersection at 15th street and Yale avenue, which is situated on a hill.

Basements of more than 100 homes were flooded over the city, it was estimated, and in the northwest section the water rose above the first floor of at least 30 houses.

publican Nomination

JOE O'LAUGHLIN

To the voters of Lawrence county, I submit my candidacy for the office of county commissioner.

This office is one of great importance not only to the winning candidate but also to the taxpayers of the county.

It is this office that dictates the expenditures of the county; therefore, it behooves the taxpayers to place in the office one with ability and a keen appreciation of the value of "other peoples' money".

For the voters' approval I present the following credentials: I was born in Union township, attended local schools and have been employed at the American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. for the last 30 years.

I seek the office on my own merits and I am not obligated to any group or faction. If elected, I pledge myself most conscientiously to conduct this office to the best of my ability and not be subject to control by the "Politicians". I respectfully solicit your vote and influence.

Indian Chief Comments On Discoveries

Finding Of Indian Relics Near New Wilmington Held Important Historically

ESTABLISHES SITE
AS CAMPING SPOT

Recent discoveries on the Beerbower-Gravenstreter properties, near New Wilmington, are of such importance as to completely revise the opinions of Indian historians of Lawrence county, it is stated by Chief E-Kus-Kini of Youngstown, O., sachem of Tellico, and authority on Indian history, who is better known by his English name of Eugene Gavin.

The discovery by C. W. Beerbower of arrowheads and flakes and chips of flint, led him to make excavations on his and the adjoining Gravenstreter properties, resulting in the discovery of such objects as scalping knives, fleshing knives, stone drills and arrow heads.

There is a knoll on the Beerbower property, and across a ravine is another knoll, which forms part of the Gravenstreter property. Before the ravine was converted into a lake, Mr.
Beerbower discovered a bed of charcoal, just across the spot where the dam is now located.

This was an important discovery.
Chief E-Kus-Kini states, and is conclusive evidence that some type of village existed on this spot. Whether the village was permanent or not cannot be established, but it is sufficient in his estimation to conclude that the Sunnycrest and Gravenstreter properties were the camping grounds of the Indians of Lawrence county and the site was a dependency of the Kuskuski Indian state.

A hundred feet from the center of the knoll on the Gravenstreter property were found grinders, scraping knives, drills and arrowheads.

In this valley were seven natural springs of ever-flowing pure water.
The water was the best the district afforded, so it is reasonable to conclude, Chief E-Kus-Kini states, that roving bands of Indians were accustomed to stop over for a few days to refresh themselves before continuing their journeys.

This locality must have been an ideal meeting place for the Shenango and Neshannocks and other tribes of the district, he concludes.
It was here that the principal rulers of the Delaware and Lenni Lenape Indians were wont to resort when overburdened with the weighty affairs of state. Shingas, King Beaver, Kichenipaulin, Teedyuscung and Glikkan, King Beaver's prime minister, all reported.

Croton Church Planning Picnic

Annual Event Will Take Place
At Castle Beach Next Thursday

Arrangements are being completed by the general committee for the annual Croton M. E. Sunday school picnic, which will take place at Castle Beach, Thursday, August 1.

Clarence Reiber has been named general chairman, and with his assistants, is planning a full afternoon and evening of entertainment, including an attractive sports program. There will be events for young and old, and a mushball game between the married and single men.

Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Acids Will Wreck World's Fair Tower

CHICAGO, July 25.—"Andy," the remaining sky-ride tower of World's Fair fame, will be razed with chemicals.

"Amos," the other sky-ride tower, was blasted down. But the windows of the nearby Soldiers' Field Stadium were shattered by the force of the explosion and wrecking company officials sought a safer way of bringing down the 628-foot giant.

Science came to the rescue, and soon "Andy" is to be melted down.

The legs of the tower will be weakened first, by undercutting, causing the tower to lean. Then steel-dissolving chemicals will be applied to melt the legs down another six feet.

At the rate of 10 feet of lean at the top for every foot of steel melted at the base, an inclination of 60 feet will result. Then gravity will do the rest.

The tower is one of the few relics on the grounds of the World's Fair.

Featured on stage and screen and the sawdust ring Poodles brings his internationally famous family with man Brothers Circus he co-starred picture "Our Little Girl."

Fifty other famous acts will also be seen with the circus when it plays here, including the rodeo and wild west headed by Buddy Montana and Rex Cole.

Girl Scouts Find Great Interest In Day Camp At Park

Large Crowds In Attendance At Camp; Rain Interferes
On Wednesday

The Girl Scout Day Camp has proved so popular that rain has not interfered until Wednesday. On Tuesday in spite of the rain, there were 76 girls at the park clamoring to stay—so camp was held as usual as nearly as possible. In the afternoon, Mr. Eckerd took them all for a ride in the Old Mill, which was a great treat. On Wednesday morning when the director went to the park just in case any girl had come she found 39, but sent them home, as everything was too wet for safety.

The attendance has increased steady-ly with very little turnover. Last Friday, the peak was reached with 97 present. The girls have had only had a grand time swimming, playing and doing handcraft, but many of them have accomplished much in scouting.

The same enthusiasm seems to be developing for the established camp at Kennedy's Mills in August. For the information of mothers who do not know the regulations of a scout camp and who are sending their children for the first time, there is always a registered nurse in residence who takes watchful care of the girls and a doctor on call for any emergency. Fortunately the camp has always kept very healthy.
The menus are carefully planned and an abundance of good wholesome food with plenty of milk is supplied. No candy is sold, but some is given each day.

The waterfront is carefully guarded by Red Cross experts and instruction is given beginners, as well as the more experienced swimmers.
Mrs. Margaret Weller of the State Road, a Red Cross examiner heads the swimming. She has been highly recommended by the local Red Cross office. The boating will be in charge of people experienced in that line.
The greatest care is always taken about the waterfront.

The dishwashing kaper has become a regular matter of competition since it is being done at the tables in the mess hall, each table trying to be a little faster than the other. A great deal of singing enters into it as well as a great deal of laughter.

Registration will be open until August 1 and should be brought or sent to 114 East Wallace Ave., care of Miss Adrielle Lynch.

East Side Picnic Plans Nearly Done

Final plans for the East Side community picnic to be held in Cascade Park Wednesday afternoon and evening, July 31, are about complete, according to General Chairman Carl W. Hauffler and the program will be announced in a day or two.

The plans call for a parade, a lengthy sports program, a short speaking program in the dance hall, or at the band stand, and a long list of prizes to be given away including an automobile and a refrigerator.

will you serve on a jury
WITH THIS LADY?

If you haven't tried Gulf gas lately, you've a big surprise coming. Put it "on trial" in your car for the next 3 weeks. Then see if you don't agree with the verdict of this fair member of the Gulf "jury."*

*750 people said "yes"... Gulf got the verdict

RECENTLY we staged a "trial" of That Good Gulf Gasoline... with 750 car owners—men and women—as jurors.

They drove Gulf in their own cars for 3 weeks—long enough to give it a real "workout." They compared it with their regular brands on (1) mileage (2) starting (3) pickup (4) power (5) all-around performance.

At the end of the trial period, 7 out of 10 voted for Gulf on one or more of these 5 counts.
Many found it better in all 5 ways!

Why the better results? Because Gulf is 5 good gasolines in one. Thanks to controlled refining, it gives you not merely 2 or 3 ideal gas qualities—but all five.

Try That Good Gulf for 3 weeks. We'll bet it's your regular gas from then on!

Oklahoma Case Is Strange One

Girl Poses As "Man," Wooes And Weds High School Girl, Police Intervene

(International News Service)
PITCHER, Okla., July 25.—Miss Alice Delores "George" Hayes, 21-year-old Pitcher shoe clerk, who after successfully posing as a man for several weeks wooed and "married" Margaret Lavenia Fowler, 14, of Galena, Kan., high school freshman, today announced that an attorney had been retained by them to "make the marriage stick."

At her mother's home at Rocher, Okla., near her "George" said that John W. Hamilton, Galena attorney, had accepted "our case."

She insisted that Margaret wished to continue as her "wife." The Fowler girl, who went to the home of her parents at Galena late yesterday when her strange story became public, could not be reached today.

Separated By Police
The pair separated last night when Police Chief Al Maness of Pitcher ordered the Hayes girl "to either wear women's clothes or get out of town in a half hour." She remained at her mother's home today, but said Hamilton had advised her that she was violating no law by wearing male attire.

Meanwhile, Cherokee county, Kan., authorities were in a quandary over what legal course to pursue to dissolve the "marriage" which was performed at Galena, July 15, after a whirlwind courtship of six weeks by "George."

Girl Missing At Perryopolis

Mother Believes Fourteen-Year-Old Daughter Is Enroute To Hollywood

(International News Service)
PERRYOPOLIS, Pa., July 25.—A mother's aching heart cried out today for word of her missing 14-year-old daughter, Wanda Phillips, who disappeared from her home a fortnight ago apparently to satisfy her yearning for a Hollywood dancing career.

Raymond Phillips, the girl's father, revealed that shortly before Wanda's disappearance on July 12 she told him:

"Look, Daddy, those girls in Hollywood make big salaries and can't do much better than I can. Just think, here I am and not able to develop myself."

Phillips, a former hotel owner, said there had been two offers for Wanda. One of $300 a month and expenses for the child and a guardian, but that both had been turned down on the ground that Wanda should first finish school. Wanda's mother suffered a nervous breakdown following the girl's disappearance, Phillips said.

RUSSIAN WHEAT IS OFFERED ON MARKET
LIVERPOOL, Eng., July 25.—The first wheat reported from Russia for two years was offered on the Liverpool market today, causing a sharp break in prices.

The Soviets offered 6,000 tons of the grain in a surprise move. Russia's re-entry into the world wheat market was a severe blow here.

October option fell two-pence to five shillings, one farthing per hundred pounds, although it later recovered to five shillings, 13-8 pence.

She Likes Her Job

Miss Charlotte Carr feels right at home at new job as director of home relief of New York City. She was twice Secretary of Labor in Pennsylvania, a co-worker with Frances Perkins when Miss Perkins was New York Industrial Commissioner, and a night policeman during the World War in rounding up wayward girls in Brooklyn.

Attempt To Break Strike Is Futile

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., July 25.—Ending bitter tension that flared into mob violence as a dozen automobiles loaded with strikebreakers were stoned, the New York Shipbuilding Corporation today closed its gates after a two-day futile attempt to break the 11-weeks' strike of 4,600 workers.

Amid the jubilant cries of 3,000 massed pickets, 400 former employees, who returned to work Tuesday under conditions prevailing before the strike was called, today were ordered away by attendants inside the closed gates of the plant.

Company officials issued no statement, but strikers hailed the latest development as a victory after Lieut. Ralph Blakely, in charge of the city police detail, declared he had learned boiler fires were "pulled" last night.

German Embassy Likely To Protest La Guardia's Act

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 25.—The German embassy is likely to make formal representations to the state department against the action of Mayor F. H. La Guardia of New York, in sustaining the order withholding a massage operator's license from a German alien, on the grounds of unfair discrimination against Americans in Germany.

The embassy is awaiting a full report on the incident from the German consul general in New York.

The view prevailed in German quarters here that Mayor La Guardia's action was a clear violation of article 1 of the existing treaty of friendship and commerce between the United States and Germany. This article guarantees equal treatment for the citizens of both nations.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands of sufferers from itching, bleeding or protruding piles have learned that quick and lasting relief can be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves nor cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts lifeless. To end Piles an internal medicine should be used to stimulate the circulation, and restore the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for hundreds of patients with a marvelous record of success and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID tablets from their own druggist with a rigid money back guarantee.

So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Ecker's Cut Rate and New Castle Drug Co. says "No matter what kind of Piles you have, one bottle of HEM-ROID tablets must show you the safe clean way to get rid of your Pile misery or money back."

UTILITY LEGISLATION MAY FAIL TO PASS

Conferees Are Near Deadlock

House Members Continue Staunch Opposition To Any "Death Sentence"

COMMITTEE SESSION FORCED TO ADJOURN

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 25.—Possibility that utility legislation will fail of final approval during the present session of congress was advanced today as house members continued their staunch opposition to the drastic holding company "death sentence."

The joint conference committee of house and senate members named to settle differences in the measure as passed by the two houses headed toward an apparent deadlock.

Three of the five house conferees—Reps. Huddleston (D) Alabama, Holmes, Massachusetts and Cooper, Ohio, Republicans, announced they would stand firmly against the death clause. The provision was not included in the house bill but was adopted by a single vote in the senate measure.

Committee Has Controversy
The conference committee was forced to adjourn yesterday when Huddleston objected to the presence of Benjamin Cohen, New Deal lawyer, and Dozier De Vane, solicitor of the power commission, in the conference room.

Huddleston asserted their presence constituted an administration lobby for the "death sentence" since both aided in drafting the original utility bill.

Senator Wheeler (D) of Montana, chairman of the senate conferees, indicated he would insist on De Vane and Cohen's presence at further meetings.

Meanwhile Democratic leaders denied emphatically that the house would reverse its attitude toward the death clause.

Rep. Boland (D) of Pennsylvania, house whip, said the majority of members had formed an opinion on the legislation long ago and would not change their views.

Huddleston said the testimony developed before the house and senate committees investigating utility lobbying would have little effect in altering the overwhelming house vote against the death sentence.

Kellogg's RICE KRISPIES

Today

A Tough Old Bird.

War With Germs.

Labor War.

Lipstick on His Shirt.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

AMOS R. E. PINCHOT, who has leisure and thinks, utters profound truth writing to one of the "progressors."

"Capitalism is a tough old bird, that will live a good deal longer than any of us." Capitalism, which means government by organized dollars, and industry, instead of organized soldiers, will last longer than the present generation, longer than this Century. Capitalism is the new financial feudalism that replaces military feudalism. There is no reason why it should not last as long as military feudalism lasted, many centuries.

MR. PINCHOT also writes to his young friend:

"I also believe that the profit system and competition—even cut-throat competition—with its stimulus to invention, differentiation of product and vast production of goods that can be sold at low prices, offer a far better chance for prosperity, freedom, happiness, individual progress, and a good standard of living than does socialism or fascism."

"And you may lay to that," as a Robert Louis Stevenson character said.

THE NEXT WAR when it comes, will not be pleasant. H. R. Knickerbocker, International News Service correspondent, writing in the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, tells of disease germs to be used in the next war, supplementing poison gas and high explosives.

Four learned medical men, including Professor Cannon, of the Harvard Medical School, report to the League of Nations that fighting an enemy with disease germs might be highly effective. The four hated the idea, BUT it was their duty to report that airplanes could spread plant diseases that would destroy the enemy's crops; that highly virulent germs, including anthrax, glanders and rabies, could be spread in shells, grenades or shrapnel. City populations would be attacked with a "fine, infectious spray," carrying many germs. Various diseases could be spread in enemy cities, "typhus, typhoid, cholera, bubonic plague, the germs of anthrax, glanders, rabies, and the micro-coccus of Malta fever."

CONSIDER WHAT germs did, without deliberate intention in the last war. Professor Hersch, a high authority, declares that between 1914 and 1918 disease germs killed 37,000,000 civilians. Such germs were deliberately sprayed on civilian populations and otherwise scattered, according to experts, might practically wipe out Europe's population in the next world war.

The last "big war," started, by the way, twenty-one years ago this coming Sunday, was a mild, little experiment in wholesale killing compared with what the next will be. Europeans will do well not to start it. The United States will do well to keep out of Europe's troubles.

THIS IS our American "war news": Two thousand national guardsmen on duty in Terre Haute, Ind., "rained" tear gas bombs on union pickets. The city's 65,000 population was paralyzed by a general strike. All merchants had closed their stores, but 150 reopened when tear gas proved effective.

IT WOULD be a pity to have similar troubles all over the country, and that might well happen. For instance, government expenditures in New York will supply work to 100,000 idle men, but if the few skilled union men go on strike as they threaten to do, the 100,000 will be thrown out of work and penniless.

Would it be possible to select one state, or a large section of some state, make it a social laboratory and let those who feel that union labor and other private organizations should rule the country, try their experiments thoroughly. The government could arrange to indemnify original owners of the territory at the end of the experiment.

SCIENTISTS, experimenting with guinea pigs take one or ten or a hundred guinea pigs, never all the guinea pigs at once.

College professors, union labor leaders convinced of their ability to invent a better government, gentlemen who believe in no government at all, and other experimenters should select a definite number of American guinea pigs for experiment, not practice on the 130,000,000, all at once.

IN A BACKWARD region of the Vendee, France, country of old Clemenceau, a peasant woman noticed that her cow had lost its appetite. Something had to be done so she beat a woman neighbor savagely, accusing her of "bewitching the cow." In 1935 it ends there.

Not many years ago, the woman would have been put on trial as a witch, probably burned alive, as thousands of others were, and a panic of witch-hunting might have started, as often happened and there never was a witch.

MRS. CAROLINE SENAY, of New York, asks a divorce, her husband offers new excuses.

"What about those lipstick stains on your shirt front?"

"They came from a red leather book in my vest pocket."

"What about that lady you've been seen with?"

"That's a friend of the boss. He leads a gay life and I have to go out with him to hold my job."

Mrs. Senay refuses to name the "boss" because then her husband would lose his job. Besides, his boss has a wife and children.

THE "SHORT" and simple annals of the poor" include occasional tragedies. Miss Rose Miller, 42, mother of three girls, with her husband, Isidor, a tailor out of work, could not pay the rent of her flat, $28.00 a month. She and the unemployed husband and the three little girls were dispossessed and her courage went with her home. When Isidor Miller ran up with others to see who had jumped from a roof five stories high, he found that it was his wife, Rose. She was dead.

YOU CAN do almost anything with words, if you know how to use them. The French government knows how, and suggests by way of settling the Abyssinian matter, a "free Ethiopia, ruled by Mussolini." That is like suggesting a "free elephant" ridden by a mahout, armed with a good strong steel "sticker."

HERE'S BAD NEWS

FOR STEP CHILDREN

SANTA ANA, Calif.—A stepmother may punish her husband's child by a previous marriage, Judge Kenneth E. Morrison so held in dismissing a complaint against Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armfield, Mrs. Armfield was said to have punished her stepdaughter, Edith 16, when the latter assertedly called her names. Judge Morrison declared "there is far too much laxity in the parent's correction of children; if a child is to be disciplined in life, that discipline must start at home."

SWALLOWS BULLET

FIRED FROM PISTOL

PARIS—An ancient pistol fired in jest caused an extraordinary accident here. Madame Victorine Mallard had found the pistol while clearing out some junk. Playfully, she aimed it point blank at the profile of her friend Jacques Martin, and pulled the trigger. To her surprise there was a loud report and she saw blood running down Jacques' cheek. He had a neat hole on one side of his face and a broken tooth. He had swallowed the bullet in his agitation.

LIQUOR STORE FOR 7TH WARD

Expect Additional State Store To Be Opened Here In Near Future

While previous advice from Harrisburg indicated that New Castle was assigned a "one man" liquor store in addition to present store on Produce street, later developments seem to indicate a full time liquor store to be placed in the seventh ward.

Under the provisions of the liquor act passed by the session of 1935, one man liquor stores were authorized to augment the regular stores.

New Castle was listed as one city to get one of the smaller units. In the past several weeks an agent of the State Liquor Control Board has been in the seventh ward seeking a location for a store and it is said, upon reliable authority that the store will be either a two or three man store, operating the same hours as the present stores in this county.

If the new store is established it is possible that the manager would come from the personnel of the present liquor store, and possibly one of the clerks, with either or both of the liquor store clerks who were furnished some time ago, being retained.

At the present time the liquor store on Produce street is operating with six men and doing about fifty per cent more business than when it was operated with eight men. Sales are down somewhat from the total of the colder weather sales but it is estimated that the year's business will show approximately a total of $360,000 worth of liquor sold.

Pardons Man Jailed For Fishing
In State Hatchery
Pool

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 25.—Frank E. Wertz, Tyrope, serving a three-months jail sentence for fishing in the Pleasant Gap state hatchery, had regained his freedom today under an executive order signed by Gov. George H. Earle.

Wertz, jailed in default of $100 fine and costs, had served about one-half his sentence. Clemency was recommended by the board of fish commissioners which prosecuted the case.

The governor liberated Wertz from the Centre county jail at Bellefonte by remitting the balance of the fine after he was informed the prisoner was intoxicated at the time and that his imprisonment had worked great hardship upon his wife and five children.

He was found lying alongside the bed, evidently having died while in the course of taking a bath.

Murphy Company Employees Enjoy Annual Picnic

Enjoyable Event Takes Place At Lakewood Beach On Wednesday Evening

Employees of the G. C. Murphy company enjoyed their annual picnic at Lakewood beach Wednesday evening.

A picnic supper was served early in the evening to 75, following which short talks were given by Manager C. H. Moore and E. A. Beard, W. M. Shaffer, H. L. Larson and E. M. Hoeth, assistant managers.

A store knocker, read by Miss Laura Cowmeadow, created considerable interest and merriment, following which an interesting sports program took place.

The three-legged race for girls was won by Elizabeth Smith and Jessie Hromyak. A comic pie-plate race was won by Minnie Wanner, while Margaret Wilkins proved to have the strongest throwing arm, winning the baseball throw for girls. Miss Laura Cowmeadow won the 50-yard dash for girls. The dash for men went to Mr. Moore.

A future big-league outfielder was found in John McClelland, who outdistanced all the men in the ball throwing contest. Miss Sue Roth won the orangeade drinking contest.

The program was concluded with an amusing tug-of-war between the front and back sections of the store, which was won by the back section, prizes for which were contributed by Mr. Moore.

Much of the success of the event was due to the splendid cooperation of Mr. Moore and the efforts of the committees, which were as follows: Transportation—Misses Edith Mariana and Minnie Wanner. Table—Misses Marian Rigby and Sue Roth and Mrs. Mary Mastren. Sports—Misses Olive Wigton, Laura Cowmeadow and Flossie Garner.

BASEBALL TEAMS TO CLASH IN BENEFIT

Expect Throng At Game Today

Youngstown Champions To Play Lawrence Loop Leaders At Cents' Field

UMPIRES TO START CONTEST AT 6 P. M.

Thousands of fans are expected to throng Centennial field at six p. m. today to witness the baseball benefit for the widow and children of the late Sankey McCullough. East Side Civics of Youngstown are scheduled to play the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company, and the probable pitching choices are Paul McCullough and Dorie Gunnett, respectively.

According to the committee which assumed the "Sankey" McCullough charge of arrangements Saturday, the pastebards have gone fast and a huge sale is expected when the gates are opened at five p. m. A detail of state city police and highway patrolmen will be present to keep the fans in line.

All of the monies from the benefit will go to the aid of the widow and children of McCullough, who was unemployed. Realizing conditions, a movement to help the family got under way, and with good weather at six p. m. it is believed it will be highly successful.

Two Good Teams

The teams are evenly matched. The American Sheet & Tin Plate team heads the Lawrence County Baseball League and the East Side Civics, who will be accompanied here by a delegation of fans, are recognized as the baseball champions of Youngstown.

According to baseball players, there is little to choose between Paul McCullough and Dorie Gunnett. They are two of the best pitchers in this section, and with their teammates playing bang-up ball behind them, the fans should witness one of the best games of the season.

Manager Black said today he will use his regular line-up. Should Gunnett not show up well before the game starts, he will use either Coates or Book. Should McCullough be off his range at the time the game is to go on, Manager Hamp Davis may send Huston to the hill.

HILLSVILLE TO PLAY BESSEMER

Mahoning To Engage In Independent Game Here Friday

Although there will be several ball games by Lawrence County Baseball league clubs there will be only one regularly scheduled game Friday at Bessemer. It had been announced that Hillsville would play the Tin Platers but instead Hillsville will oppose Bessemer at Bessemer. Being traditional rivals it ought to be one of the best games of the season. Manager James Martin anticipates a big crowd at Bessemer.

The Mahoning A. A. will oppose the Sanitary Pies of Youngstown on the E. and A. field, Seventh ward. They tied for the championship of the first half in the league at Youngstown but lost to the fast East Side Civics. Mahoning is now tied for the second half lead in the Lawrence County league and if Paul McCullough does not pitch today for the Civics against the Tin Platers he will hurl tomorrow for Mahoning.

On Saturday, Carbon will journey to West Pittsburg and Wampum will oppose Alex Black's Tin Platers at Centennial field. The managers have not announced their batteries but will probably do so today. With fast games the fans are flocking to all of the Lawrence County games, Ryantown having had a crowd of almost 2,000 last Sunday.

Melvin Captures Medalist Honors

Franklin High Boy Has Big Lead In Qualifying Round For West Penn Junior

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 25.—Winner of the qualifying medalist honors in the Western Pennsylvania Junior Golf championship, Barrett Melvin, 17 year old Franklin high school student, today prepared for match play competition in the tournament.

The sensational young star, who is a heavy favorite to win the title formerly held by Jimmy Marks, Jr. Kiskadee, toured the Fox Chapel golf course in the qualifying round with scores of 73-73-146, two over par. His score was 17 shots better than his nearest rivals.

Charles Evans, Jr., Titusville, who played with Melvin, and J. C. Brinkenstein, Uniontown, were tied with 163's for runner-up honors.

Other qualifiers for titular flight play included: K. Mahaffey, Altoona, 170; John Hook, Greene county club, 171; Charles Brown, Greene county club, 174; J. A. Bleakley, Wenango, 176; Billy Martin, Beaver Valley, 177; John Harper, Wenango, 179 and Frank Fulton, Beaver Valley, 180; Judd Pollock, Wenango, 169, W. B. Smith, Greensburg, 169.

America Favored To Win Back Title In Davis Cup Play

(International News Service)
WIMBLEDON, July 25.—With Sidney B. Wood back on the Davis cup team, America's campaign to win back the trophy was aimed today against British holders doubles pair and "Bunny" Austin who, it was hoped, would accommodate by dropping two singles matches.

Wimber Allison, who chalked up two victories in America's 4 to 1 defeat of Germany, is being saved for the doubles with John Van Ryn, thereby enhancing his country's chances of beating Britain.

Beating Heiner Henkel yesterday, Allison was obviously tired following the doubles the day before, and it was felt he could hardly play in the doubles and then beat Austin, much less Fred Perry, when the challenge round begins Saturday.

Donald Budge beat Sustain at Wimbledon, and ought to be able to do it again, especially after his grand exhibition against the Wimbledon finalist, Baron Gottfried Von Cram, yesterday.

COPPLE BROTHERS SIGN WITH UNIONS

Sam and Frank Copple formerly with the Capitols team in the New Castle Soft ball league have been released by the Capitols and are now with the Unions. It was reported today by Fred Marcella, business manager of the Unions. Sam Copple will be eligible for the game Friday night with the Radiators.

Tigers Deadlock Yankees For Top

Alvin Crowder Sets Yanks Down With Four Hits, Giants Defeat Cardinals

PIRATES WIN TWO GAMES

By TONY PUGLIESE
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, July 25.—Both major league pennant races today cooled along at the temperature of molten steel, as the two New York teams fought desperately to evade the searing flames of the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Yankees are in a particularly precarious spot in the American league, with the final game of the Tiger series set for this afternoon. Although the Yanks entered yesterday's contest a half a game ahead, and suffered a 4 to 0 blanking from General Alvin Crowder, veteran right hander, they still top the circuit by .0004 of one percentage point. The stands today are:

W. L. Pct.

Yanks	51	33	.6074
Tigers	44	35	.5588

In spite of the discrepancy in points, the Tigers lead the New Yorkers in games won and lost by half a game. The freak standing is due to the fact the Tigers have played five more games than their rivals, and have lost two more, while winning three more. But the pennant races are won and lost on percentage points.

Crowder Stingy

The Yankees were held to four hits by Crowder, who failed to walk a man, and allowed only one man to reach first. He was given a lead in the first inning when Jo Jo White, the left field man, hit the first homer of his three-year major league career. Three more hits and two passes in the third concluded the scoring.

The Giants remained in first place on Dizzy Dean to the tune of 4 to 2. Carl Hubbell, Giant left hander, held the Cardinals to five hits, while his mates scored four runs in the seventh. The Giants now lead by a game and a half, with a most crucial double header today with the same on-rushing Cards.

While the Giants and Cards battle it out, the Chicago Cubs are rapidly catching both of them. The Cubs defeated the Dodgers 9 to 3, and 7 to 6 in 11 innings, in a twin bill to climb within a game of the second place Cards and to within two and a half of the Giants.

Pirates Win Two

The Pittsburgh Pirates swept a bargain bill with the Phillies, 8 to 6 and 4 to 3, behind a 23-hit attack. In Washington, the Cleveland Indians pulled two late rallies on the Senators to win both ends of a double header, 10 to 6 and 13 to 8. The St. Louis Browns sent the Boston Red Sox back into the second division by defeating them, 6 to 3.

Philadelphia, the Chicago White Sox and the Athletics were rained out after playing one scoreless inning.

Presbyterians To Play Golf Friday

Large Number Of Members Of Congregation Expected Out At Castle Hills

With over 200 golfers eligible for play, a majority of them are expected out on Friday evening, when the weekly golfing of the First Presbyterian church unit will take place on the Castle Hills course.

Play will start at 4:30 and from then on, the men and women of the congregation will compete, the women on the first nine and the men on the second nine.

Tolans Defeat St. Andrews 2-1

Tolan A. C. handed the St. Andrews team a surprise 2 to 1 defeat last night at Spencer field in a game replete with thrills and fast playing. Rogers held the heavy slugging Saints to two hits and whiffed 10 batters. Pascarella was touched for only four hits and fanned six men.

Gray made several sensational catches of hard hit ball in left field as did Marks in roving short and Webber in center field. Bob Eng was the hero of the game with a homer and a double that produced the winning runs for the Tolans. Eng's homer in the fifth was one of the longest hits of the year at Spencer field.

QUEEN OF POWER SWIMMERS

Supremacy in distances ranging from 440 yards to a mile was established by Lenore Kight, powerful Homestead, Pa., swimmer during the national championship events at Manhattan Beach, N. Y. She is pictured setting a new record in the 440, which she swam in 5m 31.5s, clipped her own record set at Jones Beach in 1933.

CANZONERI-PACHO TO BATTLE TONIGHT

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, July 25.—Tony Canzoneri, popular lightweight champion of the world, goes back to the wars tonight when he meets Bobby Pachco, rugged Mexican battler, in a ten-round bout here.

What with King Levinsky driving the fish to cover at Round Lake in preparation for his engagement with Joe Louis here August 7, and the negro sensation himself subjecting his sparring partners to some very unpleasant afternoons in a Black Belt ballroom, this Canzoneri-Pachco meeting would not seem to weigh much in significance.

OLD TIMERS SIGN UP NEW MATERIAL

The Old Timers soft ball team has signed up some new material for the exhibition game with the Tolan A. C. at Spencer field Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Bill Pannell, former well known catcher, will be behind the plate to catch the slants thrown up by Walther.

Jimmy Smith, who has left for Indianapolis with Willie Grommes and Izzy Solomon to represent the city in the National Public Links tournament next week, has turned in the best score to date for the 36-hole qualifying round. Jimmy's figures three under par for the two rounds, or 143. Par is 146.

Among those who are entered in the championship flight are Herman Green, George Trainor, Roger Molesworth, M. K. Gilliland, Jimmy Smith, Willie Grommes, Emil Mancine and Walt Vogan.

The grand old man of golf, W. M. Nunn, twice winner of the Municipal title, has not yet entered the championship race, but is expected to qualify before the period expires.

NEW YORK, July 25.—With Catholic sentiment crystallizing among leaders and spokesmen throughout the nation, Jeremiah T. Mahoney, national president of the Amateur Athletic Union, took the initiative today by declaring to the writer that he personally was in favor of America's withdrawal from the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin—if and provided that reports of current religious persecution by the Nazi government were verified.

Mr. Mahoney wished to make it quite clear that he would not and did not attempt to speak for the entire A. A. U., but he took occasion to point out that this body was on record with a resolution from the 1933 convention, favoring non-participation in the game if religious intolerance persisted in Germany. At that time German citizens of Jewish faith were the immediate object of non-Aryan demonstrations and worse. Within recent days, the drive has included Catholics.

"While I can't attempt to speak for the entire Amateur Athletic Union, I can speak for myself," President Mahoney declared. "If these renewed reports of religious persecution in Germany are substantiated, I can unqualifiedly state how my vote will be cast. It will be dead against an American team competing in any country that does not recognize the equality of races and faiths."

Stock Market

Is Irregular

Undertone Of Market Remains Firm And Losses Are Small

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, July 25.—The stock market lapsed into irregularity today after early strength. Motors, steel and farm shares were sold on the bulge and gave ground, but losses were small and the undertone remained firm.

Strong spots were provided by several groups. Rubbers staged a flurry with gains running to a point in Goodyear and the U. S. Rubber issues.

Utilities were actively bought in the early dealing. Consolidated Gas and some of the preferreds scored good gains.

Mail orders were turned over in large volume at new highs for the year. Pennsylvania was a strong rail, while individual issues like Greyhound, Hat Corp. and Radio were prominent.

Little attention was paid to the new advance in wheat. Other commodities were quiet. Bonds were irregular. The dollar was strong in foreign exchanges at the expense of the French franc.

Steels slipped slightly awaiting the Bethlehem directors meeting this afternoon and publication of earnings.

General Motors marked time in advance of its income report, due late today. Chrysler went into new high ground but was unable to maintain its advance.

Rails generally were little better than steady. Farm implements, the buoyant features of the last few days, gave up some of the gains. Westinghouse hit a new high but receded later. The building list was quiet, and oils little changed. A flurry of liquidation in Anaconda unsettled the coppers, while the silvers sagged.

Reproduce Indian Quarry For Museum

Quarry Discovered In 1877
Near Kutztown Furnishes
Materials For State Museum

HARRISBURG.—A Jasper rock quarry where Indians more than 400 years ago obtained stone for their arrow heads and other hunting and fighting implements in Berks county has been reproduced in exact detail as a feature exhibit opened recently in the Pennsylvania State museum, Department of Public Instruction. Three life-size Indian figures are shown at work in the quarry, and others are pictured on an oil-painted background. The exhibit is arranged so that it is difficult to determine where the real rock of the quarry stops and the painted picture begins.

The quarry was discovered in 1877 near Kutztown by H. K. Delsher of the museum staff. Dr. Charles F. Hoban, director, sent staff members to the site to obtain pieces of the Jasper rock so highly prized by Indians to take pictures and obtain other data to assist in duplicating the scene in the museum. The Indian figures, trees and placement of rocks in the small quarry are the work of Linn G. Duncan, chief preparator for the museum, and his assistant, Charles Andes. The painted background was made by John H. Froehlich, Harrisburg artist.

Italy Offers To Continue Peace Talk, Conditional

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
GENEVA, July 25.—Italy today formally notified the League of Nations she had offered to continue conciliation discussions with Abyssinia under league auspices. The offer was made two days ago. Italy stated in a note to the league secretariat, but was predicated on the condition that Abyssinia withdraw her request that the entire Italo-Abyssinian border tangle be debated.

NEW ACT RELIEVES COUNTIES OF BRIDGES

HARRISBURG.—Under terms of a bill passed by the Legislature and approved by Governor Earle the Highway Department becomes responsible for all county and township bridges on the State's road system. It will add about 6500 county and township bridges to the existing highway system.

The bill will also relieve local authorities of the expense of maintaining and reconstructing bridges and will eliminate the division of responsibility for bridges, that has been a constant source of trouble since the enactment of the Rural Highway Act in 1931.

Robinson Is Only Abductor To Successfully Evade "G-Men"

Thomas H. Robinson, Jr.
All the major kidnappings that have occurred in the United States during the past few years have been solved—except the Stoll case at Louisville, Ky. And the kidnaper, Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., still is at large.

By Cleveland News and Central Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 25.—The man who kidnapped Mrs. Berry V. Stoll, Louisville society matron, was crazy.

A few months before the crime he had been judged mentally unbalanced but today, nine months after the crime, he remains the only major kidnaper who has escaped the vigil of the nation's G-men.

The kidnaper is Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., late of Nashville, Tenn. The government agents know his name. They have his picture. They have everything in hand except Robinson. He remains at large. His case remains a mighty puzzle to the federal operatives and the police of the nation.

Ransom Paid
Robinson dropped from sight in Indianapolis when the $50,000 ransom was paid by Mrs. Stoll's husband, wealthy Louisville oil man. And he has remained out of sight as far as federal agents are concerned.

The vigil of the government has been kept constant. A close check has been kept for the marked ransom bills and here is another puzzle. Robinson collected and fled with $50,000 in marked money. Now, nine months after he started dodging the law, only $20 of this marked money has turned up.

How the kidnaper is living is as much of a puzzle as how a crazy man, working single handed, could outwit the far-flung forces of the department of justice.

G-men hold their tongues. There has been no official comment on the Robinson hunt except brief statements from time to time that it still is in progress.

Unofficial sources have revealed that the search has extended from the east coast to the west, from the Gulf of Mexico to the Canadian border and beyond.

At one time, a few months ago, a mighty net was set to trap Robinson in California when it was rumored that he was preparing to flee the country on a boat from some California port. Nothing came of this.

At another time the hunt extended outside the boundaries of the United States when a hotel proprietor in Ontario reported he had recognized a guest as closely resembling Robinson. This clue also failed.

The bill will also relieve local authorities of the expense of maintaining and reconstructing bridges and will eliminate the division of responsibility for bridges, that has been a constant source of trouble since the enactment of the Rural Highway Act in 1931.

The Italians Petrarch and Boccaccio were the fathers of modern historiography.

It indicated that Mrs. Stoll's husband and Mrs. Stoll had been marked by the kidnaper. The note demanded $50,000 and threatened the worst if the money was not paid.

As he dragged Mrs. Stoll, clad only in a negligee and fur coat, from her home, the kidnaper was accosted by a maid. He beat her brutally and tied her to a chair. Then he fled with his victim.

The Stoll abduction alarm started a mighty hunt for the victim and her kidnaper but, after several days, police dropped their vigil so that Stoll could negotiate directly with his kidnaper.

Suspicion first was attached to Robinson when notes to Stoll advised him that either Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., of Nashville, or Mrs. Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., was to be the intermediary. Then the call went out to get Robinson.

Stoll begged police to keep out. He wanted to pay the $50,000. He wanted his wife back and he feared she would die if left in the hands of her abductor.

Traced To Indianapolis
Six days after the kidnapping the big break came. Federal agents trailed Mrs. Robinson to Indianapolis, they lost track of her for a few hours, then learned she had driven out of the city.

The agents were hot on her trail. They caught up with the machine at Scottsboro, Ind., near the Ohio river. Mrs. Robinson was inside. And so was Mrs. Stoll. Two other occupants were the Rev. Arnold Clegg and his wife of Indianapolis. Robinson was gone. In the few hours Mrs. Robinson had been out of the agents' sight he had collected the ransom and fled.

Mrs. Robinson told a strange story—but a story Mrs. Stoll supported. She declared she had been a party to the crime only after it had been committed and that she had cooperated with her husband in his mad scheme so that he would not kill Mrs. Stoll. She told of many threats he made to murder his victim and of threats against her own life if she ever told on him.

Wife Feared Husband
Taken to jail in Louisville, Mrs. Robinson removed a knife with a three-inch blade from her purse. She said she had been carrying it to protect herself and Mrs. Stoll.

The Cleggs cleared up their position in the case by explaining that Mrs. Robinson had brought Mrs. Stoll to her home and asked them to drive to Louisville to return her to her home and family.

Mrs. Robinson said she knew her husband was a maniac. She feared the worst after he executed his mad kidnapping plot. She said she believed he had kept him from murder.

Mrs. Robinson and her father-in-law were indicted as accessories in the crime. But the law never has been able to lay a finger on the real abductor.

Sent To Asylum
Robinson's unbalanced mental state was revealed during an examination in Nashville after his arrest there in a $6,000 jewel robbery. His sentence was 30 days' observation in a Tennessee insane asylum.

A short time prior to the Stoll abduction, Robinson drove a Nashville woman into the country, stripped her of her jewels and attempted to attack her. He was being sought on an abduction warrant at the time of the Stoll kidnapping.

ERIE WOMAN IS SUICIDE VICTIM

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., July 25.—Clad only in a raincoat, the body of Mrs. Mae Schiefel, 50, was recovered today from Presque Isle Bay, while her pet dog sat guard on the beach nearby.

Mrs. Schiefel was said to have gone for a midnight walk last night with the dog, and was not seen afterward. In a note left with a neighborhood girl, Mrs. Schiefel discussed her marital difficulties.

Her husband, a lake engineer, is out of the city.

Colonel Rogers Dies In England

Death Takes Colonel Henry H. Rogers, Oil Millionaire
Following Operation

(International News Service)
SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., July 25.—Col. Henry Huddleston Rogers, oil millionaire, died today at Southampton hospital where he underwent an operation yesterday.

Earlier, hospital attendants had reported Rogers was "getting along very well" after his operation, the fourth of a series in an illness extending over several months. Prior to the operation, he was given a blood transfusion.

He came here a little more than a month ago from Baltimore where he underwent the third operation at Johns Hopkins hospital.

MICHIGAN FLIERS OFFER SERVICES TO ABYSSINIAN ARMY

(International News Service)
STE. MARIE, Mich., July 25.—The offer of two Michigan airplane pilots to fight for Abyssinia if the threatened war with Italy breaks out were enroute to Emperor Haile Selassie of the African country today.

Despite the fact that the United States Government is said to frown on any participation in the war by American citizens, Wheeler Batdorf, 19, and Frank H. Flannery, 25, mailed Emperor Haile Selassie their volunteer enlistments, the only condition being that they be given "good ships to fight with."

When he went out to play, as neat and clean as a new doll, he was mama's boy; when he returned, scarcely recognizable beneath the dirt, he was daddy's boy.

THAT'S RIGHT—DOWN WITH WARBUCKS

Round the World Without a Stop—Maybe

Clyde Pangborn (arrow) and Bennett Griffin, both of them trans-Atlantic flight veterans, hope to make a refueling, non-stop flight around the world in this new type of "flying wing" Upper-Cur-Burnelli transport. Pangborn is now putting the ship, which seems to be all one wing, through tests at New York. Three refuelings will be made.

Legion To Meet At St. Louis, Mo.

National Convention To Take Place Latter Part Of September

BONUS WILL BE GREATEST ISSUE

By GENE ROGUSKI
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—The biggest job of the year in St. Louis has fallen on the shoulders of Jules R.
Field, 41-year-old lawyer, musician and World War hero.

Field's job is to carry out St.
Louis' desire to make this year's convention of the American Legion the biggest and most colorful in the organization's 16 years of existence.
The convention will be held here
September 23-26.

Field, 200 pounds of dynamic energy, is general business manager and chairman of the executive committee of the American Legion Convention Corp.

For several months, Field, shirt-sleeves rolled up with the stentorian voice of a major-general has been busy arranging for the reception of the thousands of war veterans who are expected here, finding sleeping accommodations for them, and providing entertainment.

Field is known as the "Fiddling Veteran"—a name given him because he financed his way through Northwestern University by playing the violin at tea parties and dances. As a second lieutenant in the World War he came back wearing a Croix de Guerre with a gold star.

To Be Largest

This year's convention, Field predicts, will be the biggest in the organization's history. Field's assertion is backed up by the Legion's National Commander, Frank Belgrano, Jr., San Francisco.

Belgrano, on a visit here predicted the veterans would come by the thousands to reaffirm the Legion's stand on the bonus and recommend immediate payment as a sound business proposition.

The convention will bring to St.
Louis 10,000 women, war veterans in their own right, it is estimated by Miss Dorothy Frooks, red-haired New York lawyer who is serving her third term as national commander of the Women World War Veterans.
During the war she served as chief yeoman in the Navy.

Preparation being made for 200-000 visitors during the convention.
Legion officials estimate that from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 will be spent by these visitors between the time they leave their homes and return, the major part of it here.

Many Bands Coming

Hundreds of the country's finest and most colorful legion bands will be here, including Franklin Post No.
1 band from Columbus, Ohio, which won the national championship at Miami last year. In order to come here, the band turned down a trip to Paris to play in an international competition. "Cream Puff," the famous horse of the Elyra, Ohio, Drum Corps, which drills and responds to bugle calls, also will be here. It is promised by Ohio State Commander William S. Konald.

The Canton, Ohio band, runner-up at the Philadelphia convention in 1926, and the crack drill team from Warren, Ohio state champion for the last five years and winner of third place in the national competition at Detroit, Mich., in 1931, also will attend.

Prominent guests from Ohio will include Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War during the Wilson administration, and David S. Ingalls, World War ace and assistant Secretary of the Navy under President Hoover.

On Court House Hill

Jury Commissioners George J. Forrest and B. Frank Thorn, with Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard, drew juries today for the September term of court. The grand jury will convene on Monday, Sept. 9, and the petit juries on Sept. 16 and 23.

Work of remodeling the waiting room adjoining the county commissioners' private office for use as a registration office will be started this week. It will be necessary to have a small counter or desk erected and to change the location of a radiator, in order to make room for filing cases. A big roll top desk, now parked in one corner, will be eliminated.

County commissioners have the right to change registration days in third class cities to other dates than those given in the election calendar for 1935, according to an opinion by Commissioners' Solicitor William J.
McElwee, Jr. The question was raised by a visitor to the office this morning who said that he wanted to settle an argument. He had maintained that all third class city registration days should be on the same date. Solicitor McElwee said that this is not required by the act and the commissioners were within their rights in setting the dates for August 8, 17 and 28.

The Federal Land bank of Baltimore has instituted foreclosure proceedings against Michael and Catherine DeLost to recover a balance of $2,058, alleged to be due on a mortgage for $4,000 on an 80-acre farm in Mahoning township. It is claimed that the taxes for 1932 and 1933 are in arrears, as well as payments due the bank.

J. Clyde Gilfillan has issued an amicable action in ejectment against Herbert S. Vanater to secure possession of a property in Union township. The property was leased on May 28, 1934, for one year at $240.
It is claimed that there is now due $70.50.

Barbara W. Patterson has filed an application at the prothonotary's office for a divorce from her husband, Dale Bernard Patterson, on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married at Wheeling, W. Va., in October, 1932. Mrs. Patterson says the understanding was that they were to live for a time at the home of her mother, Mrs. Florence Lorain Ornduff, at New Wilmington, who was ill, but that after the marriage Patterson refused to live there and later went to live at the home of a relative near Volant. She claims that no other home was provided for her.

The Federal Land bank of Baltimore has issued an execution against

The fish commission has called attention of County Treasurer William
O. Pitts to a bill signed by Governor Earle which prohibits the sale of bait fish taken from Pennsylvania streams. It is explained that fish used as bait must be purchased from commercial hatcheries. "Many cases have been called to our attention," the commission says, "where minnows and other small fish have been sold for bait. There was nothing in the old law that prohibited sale as long as the individual had not more than 50 fish. The bill signed by the governor places a $10 fine for every fish offered for sale."

A supreme court decision will be necessary to clear up a controversy between the civilian conservation corps and the state department of revenue on the question of whether cigars sold to CCC workers are taxable. The CCC ruled its members need not pay the new two-cent tax because they are federal employees, but a conflicting ruling followed from the revenue department.

Cattle Rustlers Again Active

Rising Price Of Meat Is Ascribed As Cause Of Revival

TEN ARRESTS ARE MADE IN SOUTH

(International News Service)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 25.—
For the first time in many years cattle "rustlers" have become active in this vicinity, giving rise to numerous investigations with a total of 10 arrests to date.

Harking back to the days recounted in the development of the "wild and woolly" west, the thieves have been operating on a large scale at night, but with wholly modern methods.

Unlike the old days, when cattle were driven from one range to another, across streams and various boundary lines on the hoof, the modern rustlers locate a herd near a highway, drive a truck to the spot, load the cattle and vanish.

Five white men and five negroes have been arrested in a wide investigation of the thievery extending over several counties, and other arrests are expected to follow.

Alabama's criminal code makes the investigation somewhat easier than it might be, it is explained by Sheriff Haygood Paterson of Montgomery, who pointed out that all butchers are required to keep an exact record of every animal slaughtered, including names and addresses of the sellers.

Convictions for cattle theft in this state carried a penalty of a fine not to exceed $500 and a sentence to hard labor not to exceed one year.

The rising price of meat is given as a cause for the extensive thievery of cattle.
